

NEW OUTWELL WEATHERPROOF TABLES PERFECTLY COMBINE STYLE AND FUNCTION

Scandinavian outdoor specialist, Outwell, has introduced a new range of weatherproof tables that successfully combine performance with contemporary style that will grace any tent, caravan, motorhome or patio.

The rough and tumble of campsite life tests any product and Outwell has carefully chosen materials to match table designs to ensure durability while maintaining chic good looks.

All tables have sturdy lightweight aluminium frames with locking telescopic legs to tailor height to suit needs, and oversize adjustable feet for enhanced stability on uneven or soft ground.

Table tops have come under special scrutiny and Outwell has supplied its Weatherproof Tables in four models – each using one of three different materials.

Berland L and M (pictured right) – the aspirational Outwell model uses Tetrameld. This is a tough, lightweight honeycomb composition comprising glassfibre, polypropylene and melamine with a sophisticated wood-effect finish. The material is resistant to UV damage, water and heat. While all other tables have a maximum load rating of 30kg, this increases to 50kg in the Berland M. These lightweight tables weigh just 4.5kg and 5.6kg for the M and L versions respectively.

Finally, Outwell Roblin 7.1kg M and 5.1kg S tables (pictured below left) feature a light high-pressure resin laminate to provide resistance to water, heat and scratches expected during lighter general outdoor use.

Families will also appreciate the new Pemberton Picnic Set (pictured right) that unpacks to reveal a large table with two stand-alone benches. The steel frame and plastic tops ensure a tough finish perfect for family meals and socialising.
