

NEW EASY CAMP AIRUP INFLATABLE FAMILY TENTS OFFER QUALITY AND WALLET-FRIENDLY VALUE

Celebrate summer from the moment you arrive with this purse-pleasing range of inflatable, fast pitching family air tents. The all-new Easy Camp AirUp range is a breath of fresh air for families, couples and friends looking for great value, hassle-free holidays. Convenient, comfy and crammed with practical features, you might be surprised at what you can get for your money.

The air technology takes the stress out of pitching, quickly inflating the individual tubes into a sturdy frame without the need for poles. Sleeping between five and six people, and packed with handy storage, this range makes extra comfy camping even more affordable.

During the day, you can relax in the light, airy living area with ample height and large windows. At night you'll sleep well thanks to the great ventilation and bug-proof panels, which are essential for summer camping in the UK. For a real homely comfy feel, add carpets, footprints and a choice of lighting, folding camping furniture and inflatable sofas from the comprehensive range of Easy Camp accessories.

Rest assured that an AirUp tent offers everything needed to live life outdoors in comfort and safety. They are made from quality fire-retardant PU-coated polyester with a hydrostatic head of 3,000mm to beat unexpected summer rain. Pitching is fast and simple, with separate air tubes being quickly and easily inflated by attaching the supplied efficient pump to the handy input/output valves. Twin guylines spread the strain in high winds for secure pegging.

Comfort is guaranteed with a special inside/outside tube construction creating generous living space and ample headroom for relaxing and eating behind the large, curtained windows. Practical features include sewn-in groundsheets that fold down at the outer doors for hazard-free access, two zip sliders to front and side doors for flexible opening options, efficient rear ventilation with guy-out protective panel and Sleep-Tight inners that reduce light entering the bedrooms to ensure peaceful rest.

AirUp comprises three models:

Base Air 500 (above right) – Perfect for active family short breaks, sleeps five in two bedrooms.

Match Air 500 (above left) – Also sleeping five in two bedrooms, the tent features a large front porch that protects the door and provides a sheltered area outside under which to sit, change from wet clothing and for protected storage.

Arena Air 600 (right) – Ideal for active families enjoying longer breaks, this tent has three zones: outer wet area, inner living area and bedroom that sleeps six with a divider for privacy. The front that can be rolled away to leave a deep canopy.
